Did you know that the Auditorium was the first theatre to have air conditioning?

It's still a great place to beat the heat this August!

ONLY 4 MORE PERFORMANCES OF *THE MISTRESS CYCLE!

This is what our stage looks like this week:

Audiences and critics are raving about Jenny Giering and Beth Blatt's The Mistress Cycle, the new musical about the lives and loves of 5 "other women." We've partnered with Apple Tree Theatre to remount their 2007 production in our first outing as an intimate black box theatre.

IF A CABARET CLUB IS MORE YOUR SCENE...

There are two performances left in our Summer Cabaret series, where we invite audiences to take a seat at cabaret tables on the stage and enjoy intimate musical performances.

Next Thursday, August 13, Auditorium Theatre favorite Susan Werner returns. This talented musician is a daring and innovative songwriter with a killer live show! She'll be performing both original works from throughout her career and selections from her latest album, Classics, featuring her own new arrangements of pop favorites.

In September, we'll host the dashing Tom Wopat. Though best known to television audiences as Luke Duke from The Dukes of Hazzard, Broadway fans are familiar with Wopat's talents from his many musical appearances, including his Tony-nominated turn in Annie Get Your Gun. His show, Love Swings, bridges Broadway and Hollywood, with a side of Sinatra.
