PLUS NEW SESSION IN QUAD CITIES

We are seeking campers for our unique summer camp, Hands Together, Heart to Art. HHTA is a program for children who have experienced the death of one or both parents; it uses the performing arts to encourage communication, foster emotional growth and provide our campers the consolation of friendship and compassion. Tuition for the two week program is just $50, and scholarships are available.

If you know a child who would benefit from HHTA, please call 312.922.2110 ext 353 or email education@auditoriumtheatre.org for information.

Session 1 Chicago (ages 7-11): July 6-17
Session 2 Chicago (ages 10-14): July 20-31
Session 3 Quad Cities (ages 7-14); August 3-14
Each child attends only one two-week session.

Silk Road Theatre Project presents the midwest premiere of Motti Lerner's Pangs of the Messiah, directed by Jennifer Green, from March 19 - May 10. Set in 2012 amidst the signing of a peace treaty between Israel and the Palestinians, Pangs of the Messiah is an apocalyptic yet fiercely humane drama about eight West Bank Jewish settlers pitted against an Israel they feel betrayed by. The play focuses on a religious family that finds itself torn between fighting to stay in their settlement and obeying their government's decision to dismantle it. Left hanging in the balance is the legacy of their beliefs. Call 312.857.1234, ext. 201, or visit www.srtp.org and use the special discount code "AUDIT" to receive a $5 discount.
